THRU : Chief, Junior Officer Training Program
Director of Training
Chief, Assessment and Evaluation Staff

11 January 1956

Commendation :

[Redacted]

1. [Redacted] is deserving of special commendation for the manner in which he assisted this staff in the period 23 December 1955 - 6 January 1956.

2. The work to be done was pulling of files and preparing them for retirement to a holding area. It was monotonous, uninspiring, and although physically tiring, provided no mental stimulus. In spite of this, [Redacted] exhibited unfailing good humor and patience, completing an outstanding volume of work. He and his co-worker, [Redacted] exercised initiative in working out simplified procedures and in suggesting additional ways in which they could be helpful.

3. The work was far below the capabilities of [Redacted]. The fact that he gave it his best effort speaks well for his cooperativeness and ability to stay with an unrewarding task.

4. A copy of this memorandum is enclosed for forwarding to [Redacted] personnel file.
